

Institutionalization of Problem Solving, Analysis, and Accountability in Port St. Lucie, FL

By Office of Community Oriented Policing Services (COPS): U. S. Department of Justice

Bibliogov, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 246 x 189 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This report provides results of a collaborative partnership by the Port St. Lucie, Florida Police Department and Dr. Rachel Boba that sought to increase the effectiveness of crime reduction efforts of the agency over seven years through a practice-based evidence approach. The creation of a new organizational model for crime reduction called the Stratified Model of Problem Solving, Analysis, and Accountability was developed and implemented. Two themes come out of this work- the importance of practice based-research approach and strong leadership to drive organizational change. This report is a companion to the COPS Guidebook entitled, A Police Organizational Model: Institutionalizing Problem Solving, Analysis, and Accountability, which provides a detailed description of the Stratified Model and specific guidance for implementation into any sized police organization.
