Excerpt: .a long, thin, grave looking personage, mind that these cava-liers, pointing to Don Antonio s attendants, are well entertained. Then taking his relative by the hand, he led him into the mansion. Theodora, he then resumed, is as yet at her morning orisons, in the company of good Martha, but on an occasion like the present, there would be no great sin in smiling; it is not my maxim to disturb fair ladies when so laudably occupied. Well, my young friend, as you please; but, good heavens! continued he, surveying his guest from head to foot, with much com-placency, how you are altered! It is a goodly and consoling sight to see the improvement a few years bestow on a young man. You have distinguished yourself at the games, said Don Manuel; this is a source of unspeakable joy to me, the more...
