This bridge was built by Mr. James Burrell, and Lancelot Branacton; and is said to have been 24 years, 4 months, and 4 days, in building. Mr. John Ray, the celebrated Naturalist, who visited the north of England in the latter part of the xvii. cent., says, when writing of Berwick, it hath a fair and stately stone bridge, built at the charge of the late famous, pious, prudent, and for ever memorable Prince and Monarch, James, King of Gr eat Britaine, c. This edifice measures 1164 feet in length, and 17 in width. Towards its cost Parliament gave the sum of 14960Z. ls. Gd. 4. Cne lSurgftrr o iSertoicft Qct barm...
