Lunch at the 5 10

By Miles Wolff

Ivan R. Dee Publisher. Paperback. Book Condition: New.

Paperback. 208 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.6in. Lunch at the 5 and 10 is the story of the Greensboro sit-in—how four African-American college students sat down at a Woolworth's lunch counter in North Carolina and ignited the civil rights movement in America. The year was 1960, but the racial sensibilities of Americans were light years removed from what they are today. Mr. Wolff's even-handed account of this pivotal event in our race relations has been widely praised since it was first published in 1970. In this new edition, the author adds a new conclusion, written after the 30th anniversary commemoration of the event where the Greensboro Four met once again. August Meier's introduction places the Greensboro sit-in in historical context and explains its importance in the course of the civil rights movement. A remarkable account. . . reads like a novel. Wolff has recaptured these days with a sense of their drama, with deft characterizations of the principals, and with a sure feeling for the mood. . . . An extraordinary accomplishment. Book World. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
