The crowd, amaz d, pursu d no certain mark; But birds met birds, and jostled in the dark: Few mind the public in a panic fright; And fear increas d the horror of the night. Night came, but unattended with repose; Alone she came, no sleep their eyes to close: Alone, and black she came; no friendly stars arose. What should they do, beset with dangers round, No neighbouring dorp, no lodging to be found, But bleaky plains, and bare inhospitable ground. The latter brood, who just began to fly, Sick-feather d, and unpractis d in the sky, For succour to their helpless mother call. For now the streaky light began to peep; And setting stars admonish d both to sleep. The dame withdrew, and, wishing to her guest The peace of Heav n,...
